RE: WARREN FEATHERSTONE REID AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN HEALTH CARE

I am pleased to announce that the Washington State Board of Health is currently accepting nominations for the Warren Featherstone Reid Award for Excellence in Health Care. "Feather," as friends and associates knew him, dedicated his long career as a public servant to improving access to quality and affordable health care.

He entered public service in 1955. By 1993, when he retired as health policy adviser to Governor Booth Gardner, he had established himself as a leading expert on health policy at the state and national level. He served Senator Warren G. Magnuson for almost 20 years as an aide and then chief of staff, and also was staff to the state Legislature. After his retirement, he chaired the State Board of Health until 1998.

In 1994, the Legislature honored him and his beliefs by creating the Warren Featherstone Reid Award "to recognize cost-effective and quality health care services." The award is to be given annually to "health care providers and facilities in Washington State who exhibit exceptional quality and value in the delivery of health services." When it created the award, the Legislature recognized the importance of ensuring that all Washington residents have access to affordable, quality health care.

According to the statute, the recipient of the award is to be chosen annually by the governor in conjunction with the secretary of health, and the secretary may appoint an advisory committee to assist with the selection. The Board was honored this year when the secretary asked the board to serve as a standing advisory committee that would review nominations and recommend a recipient.

I have enclosed a nomination form and urge you to let us know about providers and facilities who deserved to be honored as "centers of quality" for efforts to improve management practices, ensure quality, increase value, expand access, and maximize customer satisfaction.

Nomination must be received by December 31, 2003. For more information, please call the Board at (360) 236-4110 or visit its Web site at www.doh.wa.gov/sboh/.
